Sectional Champion

@ Franklin

The diagram is a tournament bracket for the WIAA State Tournament Semifinals. It features two main vertical paths representing the progression from quarterfinals to semifinals. The left path starts with four quarterfinal boxes on the far left, which pair up into two semifinal boxes. These two winners then compete in the Sectional Championship game at Soccer Stadium at Verona Area High School at 1:00 PM. The right path follows a similar structure, starting with four quarterfinal boxes, moving through two semifinal boxes, and culminating in the other Sectional Championship game at Franklin. A central header contains the event title, date, and specific match times. A logo for the 'SOCCER STATE TOURNAMENT' is positioned between the header and the championship game details.

A tournament bracket diagram for the Sectional Championship. The diagram shows four teams competing in two matches. The top match is between the top two teams, and the bottom match is between the bottom two teams. The winner of the top match will advance to the next round, and the winner of the bottom match will also advance. The text "Sectional Champion" is written in blue, and the location and time of the match are listed below it.
